Missing Person Investigation Case Update

In October of 2018, forty-five year old Tracy Avilez was reported missing to the San Bruno Police Department by an acquaintance. Avilez does not have a permanent residence and had been staying with acquaintances or in vehicles prior to her disappearance. She was last seen in mid-September 2018 in the City of San Bruno. Since receiving this report, San Bruno Police Investigators have interviewed numerous associates of Avilez, and comprehensive searches have been conducted at multiple locations. Several search warrants have been executed in an effort to learn more information about Avilez's whereabouts. More warrants are being prepared to follow up on information that has been developed to this point. Specific dates, times, and locations, are not being released in order to allow investigators to more readily validate and corroborate information that may be provided.

Avilez is described as forty-five year old white female with brown hair and green eyes. She is five feet five inches tall and weighs approximately 140 pounds. At the time she was reported missing, five warrants had been issued for Avilez's arrest. Those arrest warrants remain active.

This investigation is active and on-going. Anyone with any information related to this investigation is urged to contact the San Bruno Police Department at (650) 616-7100 or by email: sbpd@sanbruno.ca.gov. Information can be left anonymously.
